

621—3.10(20) Informal disposition. Any party seeking to settle a controversy which may result in a contested case may request assistance from the board. The board may schedule meetings between the parties and assist the parties in reaching a settlement of the dispute; provided, however, that no party shall be required to settle the controversy pursuant to this rule. Any prohibited practice case commenced with the board may be informally settled by stipulation, agreed settlement, consent order, default, or by any other method agreed upon by the parties, subject, however, to approval by the board.
